

I am one of many people I know that strongly oppose any change to lighten the rules concerning the Indiana no-call list. Prior to signing on this list I was getting telemarketing calls at all hours of the day, disturbing every moment of my time at home. If anything, the current law should be made more strict, NOT more leniant. Please leave the Indiana no-call list in full force. Thank you for your time.

Brad Byers